About 2 weeks, contact for specific timelines. We order blanks twice a week, so the sooner you approve, the sooner you're in the queue.

The standard promise

- Standard orders: About 2 weeks, contact for specific timelines.
- We place wholesaler orders Monday and Wednesday mornings around 8:30 AM. A Monday order arrives the following Tuesday around noon; a Wednesday order arrives the following Thursday around noon. Approve before a window and your blanks ship with that batch — miss it and you roll to the next one. A Friday approval goes out the next Monday.
- Printing and embroidery both aim to finish by Friday at 4:00 PM of the week the blanks arrive.
- In-stock items can often wrap faster — we'll tell you on the proposal.
- High-volume orders may need extra time — we'll flag it upfront on the proposal.
